CENTURION

161 Nevers Road
South Windsor, CT 06074

Life, so they say, is but a game and they let it slip away.

Love, like the Autumn sun, should be dying but it's only just begun.

*Like the twilight in the road up ahead,
They don't see just where we're goin',*

And all the secrets in
the universe,
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.

*We may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way again.*

Dreams, so they say, are for the fools and they let 'em slip away.

Peace, like the silent dove, should be flyin' but it's only just begun.

*Like Columbus in the olden days,
We must gather all our courage;*

And sail our ships out on the open sea,
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.

We may never pass this way again.

*We may never pass
this way again.*

So, I wanna laugh
while the laughin' is easy.

I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile.

*We may never pass this way
again.
That's why I want it with you.*

'Cause we may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way
again.

WITH APPRECIATION AND UNTOLD RESPECT . . .

The Class of 1983 wishes to dedicate its yearbook to a most enthusiastic man, Mr. Philip Locario. As a teacher, Mr. Locario makes English class more enjoyable through the enthusiasm and vitality with which he conducts every class, thereby motivating his students to learn. Outside the classroom, much of the same devotion exists. Mr. Locario promotes school spirit through his direct involvement with both the ice hockey and boys tennis teams in addition to his overall support of sports at South Windsor High School. Senior year would not have been the same without his incessant encouragement and help. In short: "He gives 120%" For the joys of the past and the prospects of the future, we wish for Mr. Locario the best that life has to offer.

THOMAS ZEBEL

If it is the love of that which your work represents — if, being a landscape painter, it is love of hills and trees that moves you — if, being a figure painter, it is love of human beauty, and human soul that moves you — if, being a flower or animal painter, it is love, and wonder, and delight, in petal and in limb that moves you, then the spirit is upon you, and the earth is yours, and the fullness thereof.

Sharos has made his mark as a coach

SOUTH WINDSOR — His list of coaching achievements could fill a scrapbook the size of the Manhattan Telephone Directory.

Achievements like 608 coaching victories, including 350 in basketball and 201 in soccer, in a distinguished 27-year career. Or three state championship teams — two in basketball and one in soccer.

Charlie Sharos, however, would like to be remembered as a coach who got maximum mileage out of the talent he had.

"That's a coach's job, to get the most out of the kids," said Sharos, who has been associated with South Windsor High School as coach and athletic director since 1956. "I tried the best I could, and I was fortunate to be associated with young men in South Windsor who were willing to sacrifice and pay the price. Most of those victories were obtained from hard work and 100 percent effort."

The hard work has paid off for Sharos. He has been named as the winner of the Doc McInerney Award, given annually by the Connecticut Sports Writers' Alliance to the high school coach of the year. Sharos will receive his award at the 42nd Gold Key Dinner Feb. 13 at the New Haven Park Plaza. Tickets, priced at $25, are available from the Journal Inquirer Sports Department.

"I feel honored to be selected by the sports writers," Sharos said, "but I only represent the young men of South Windsor. They're the ones that have performed over the years. But I'd have to say this is one of the highlights of my career."

SOUTH WINDSOR — Another game, another milestone for South Windsor High basketball coach Charlie Sharos.

Sharos recorded his 350th basketball coaching victory at South Windsor as his Bobcats trounced Windsor Locks, 61-35, in a Central Valley Conference game here Tuesday night.

COACH OF THE YEAR — South Windsor High basketball Coach and Athletic Director Charlie Sharos, who captured his 350th basketball victory Tuesday against Windsor Locks, has been selected as high school coach of the year by the Connecticut Sports Writers' Alliance. Sharos also nailed down his 600th career coaching win and his 200th soccer win this year. He will receive his award at the 42nd annual Gold Key dinner Feb. 13 at the New Haven Park Plaza.

VERNON — It took 26 years for Charlie Sharos to garner 599 coaching victories at South Windsor High School, covering the sports of basketball, baseball and soccer.

Win No. 599 came on the soccer field against Bulkeley High of Hartford Sept. 17.

In its next five games, however, the South Windsor soccer team managed only one tie and four losses.

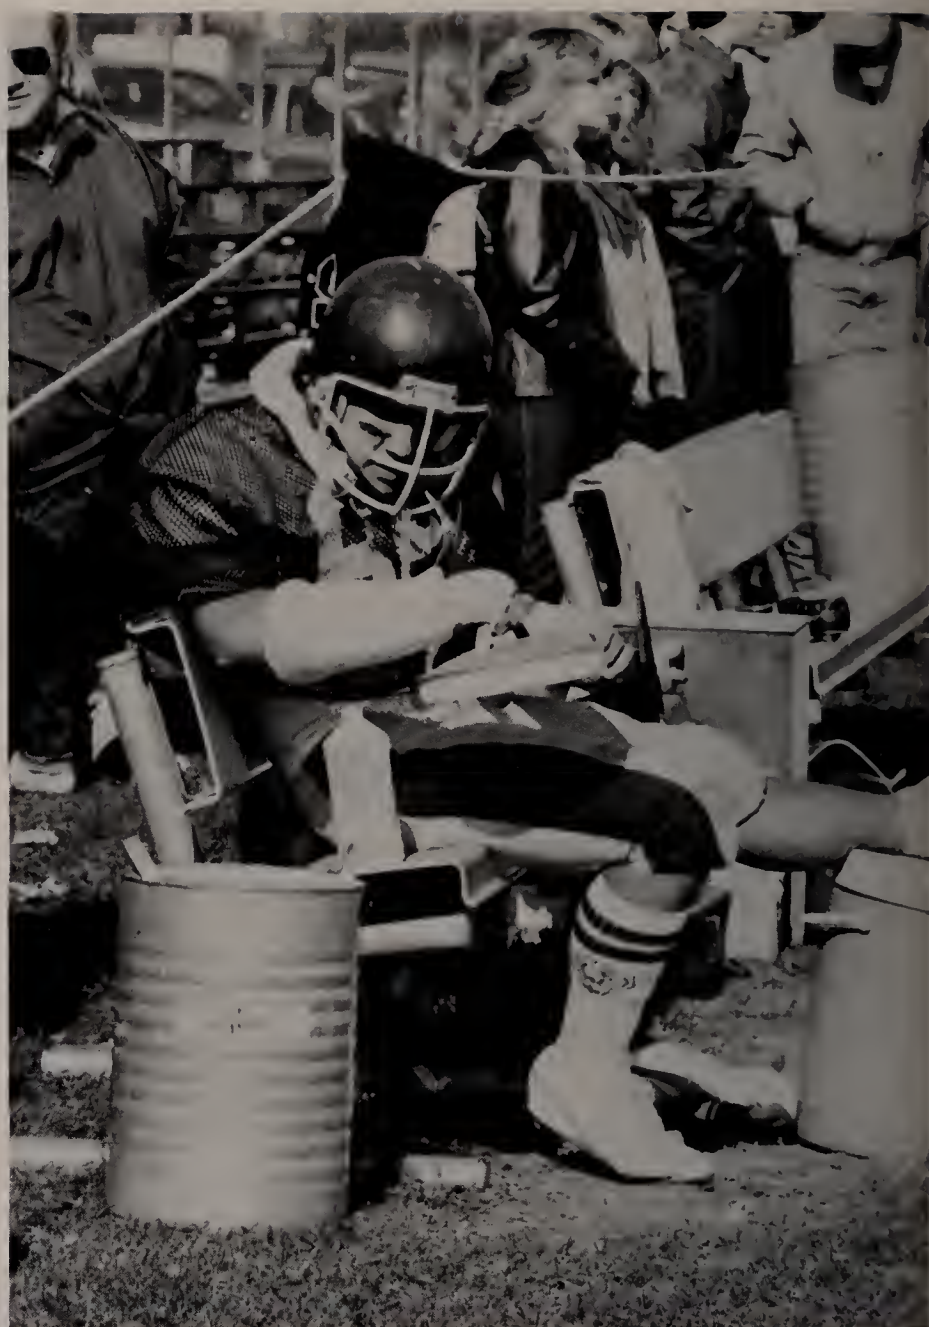

Who could blame Sharos if he began to wonder if it might take another 26 years just to get win No. 600?

But victory No. 600 came for Sharos here Wednesday in the form of a 3-0 soccer triumph for South Windsor over Rockville in a Central Valley Conference game. It was the 196th soccer coaching win for Sharos. The veteran coach has 347 basketball victories and 57 baseball triumphs.

ENFIELD — The wind was blowing out at the Enfield Twin Rinks here Wednesday. The South Windsor and Fermi High teams got locked up in a wide-open scoring duel, and when the dust finally lifted, the Bobcats were still undefeated with a wild 8-6 win over the Falcons.

SOUTH WINDSOR — The captains usually know best. So South Windsor High volleyball captains Mary Brady, Michele Giroux and Karen Siegmund led the way as South stopped East Catholic, 15-11, 15-8, and 16-14 here Monday.

The Bobcats, 5-1 overall and 2-0 in the Central Valley Conference, meet Glastonbury at home Wednesday. East Catholic tailspins to 1-4.

SOUTH WINDSOR — As time goes, 41 seconds isn't anything special.

There are three-minute eggs, 10-minute coffee breaks and week-long vacations, but there isn't much associated with 41 seconds.

But 41 seconds was special for the South Windsor High hockey team here Thursday night at the Hartford Arena.

Leading, 2-1, against Fairfield Prep, the Bobcats erupted for three unanswered goals in that span late in the first period to secure what would become a 6-2 victory, before about 100 fans.

"That was the whole game right there," said South Windsor Coach Vic Russo, referring to goals by right wing Kent Mawhinney, left wing Jeff Main and center Chris Robbins at 12:20, 12:54 and 13:01, respectively, of the first period.

SOUTH WINDSOR — When teams from South Windsor High and Rockville High meet, there is usually quite a game. But the one, here Saturday, was no contest for several reasons.

The speed and individual talents of the South Windsor High hockey team were too much for arch-rival Rockville to handle as South raced to an 8-1 victory before a full house at the Hartford Arena.

The Simsbury High hockey team was in hot pursuit of South Windsor here Monday, trailing 3-2 midway through the second period. That's when the Bobcats shifted gears, however, and left Simsbury stranded in the dust.

NEWINGTON — For a time, the Newington High girls' basketball team was a bit of a pest to South Windsor High.

SOUTH WINDSOR 4, NEWINGTON 0

NEWINGTON — It wasn't one of the more artistic wins of the season, but the South Windsor High field hockey team will gladly take a 4-0 win over Newington in a Central Valley Conference game played here Friday.

Ruth Duval scored her first varsity goal to give the 4-1-1 winners a 1-0 lead. Then Linda Pavone added a first-half goal and Colleen Schaffner scored twice in the second half

*If I could save time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do*

*Is to save ev'ry day 'till eternity passes away just to spend them
with you,*

*If I could make days
last forever,*

If words could make wishes come true;

I'd save ev'ry day like a treasure and then again I would spend them with you.

But there never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do once you find them.

I've looked around enough to know that you're the one I want to go thru time with.

*If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that had never come true;*

The box would be empty except for the mem'ry of how they were answered by you.

CLASS WILL

This '83 will and testament true
We proudly proclaim with a tear or two.
Our class had plenty of what it takes
So as we approach the exit gates,
We hereby bequeath to names here inscribed
The gifts we hold dear, with wisdom imbued.
To sophomores we leave a school that is great
Even though WE'RE glad to be leaving its gate.
Juniors, of course, deserve special mention
Do the homework we didn't and avoid that detention.
To all our teachers we eternally bow,
You were really terrific, we realize now.

To Mr. Plunkett, a big thanks is due,
For being our principal and a great guy too.
To Mr. Bordonaro, we leave a suggestion,
Learn some new jokes for next years session.
Mrs. Sampson deserves a great big thank you
For listening and understanding us too.
To Miss Moran, the whole class's friend,
For all her help a thank you we send.
As we leave Mr. Myslinski we shed a large tear
And we'd like him to know it gets us right here.
Mrs. Biancucci, who we'd never forget,
We love you dearly and are glad that we met.
We leave Mrs. Hartan substituting classes,
And thank her for writing all those passes.

We leave David Squillante still flirting with all the girls,
And Joey Walsh with all his red curls.
We leave Brian Hogan still saying "GEE",
And Jessica Wall as preppy as can be.
Jim Bourke leaves with his sexy blue eyes,
While Tommy Ricci continues to lie.
Chris Caramma was always our own singing star,
Keep up the good work and you'll go far.
Betsy Hintz leaves behind all her admit slips
To all the sophomores who like to skip.
Dee Czelazawicz, and Renee King depart in black leather coats,
While Kevin Andersen continues to read music notes.
We leave Ken Brennan still swishing the hoops,
And Kathy Hill still snooping for scoops.
James Trinks is one who's good for a joke
While Laurie Green leaves complaining she's broke.
Where you find Linda Powers you'll find a keyboard,
Jeff Main was our hockey player who always scored.
Kathy Bentley always got along with ALL others,
In looks Vinny Callahan takes after his brothers.
We leave Sue Martineau dressed in purple and pink,
And Tracy Morison working at the rink.
Frenchie's the name we remember Kim LaBrecque by,
Andre Fournier was known as Tuna, but who knows why?
Debbie Castonguay we know her for loving to talk,
Chris Elia was different, he had a mohawk.

Steve Bahler we think is very sincere,
Bob Kucza was one who was never here.
Betsy Carroll is someone we all should thank,
For doing a great job at her officer rank.
We've considered Kim Thibodeau our jewelry queen,
While Meredith Throwe drove a limousine.
We remember James Russell as our quarterback,
And Linda Pavone for her scholarship in track.
Lynda Pitz leaves loving saxophones,
And Tracy Sheriden loving The Stones.
Chris Morris leaves with her Ingling voice,
Dawn Petruzielo thinks purple is choice.
We'll remember Phil Serkosky by his nickname File,
And Alice Mealy for running the mile.
Ginny Schopp was always so quiet,
And Lauren McCormick liked to diet.
Brian McAndrew had great talent in soccer,
And Mary Brady a crowd at her locker.
Tracy Molitoris leaves her tittle of Junior Prom Queen,
While Amy Champagne leaves a record spotlessly clean.
Jeff Sabia was an excellent person to know,
And we all hate to see him go.
Betsy Vignone and John Russo leave together,
They'll probably be that way forever.
Mary Roy and Lisa Vendetti were two best friends as you could see,
But Karin Gremmo came along and made it three.
We'd also like to bring some attention,
To all of those we didn't mention.
You all are terrific and good friends indeed,
And that friendship is something that we all need.

And now that our life as adults must start,
With our high school days we are forced to part.
The friends, the dances, and all the good features,
And, of course, don't forget the wonderful teachers
So as we leave our school behind,
No matter where our paths may wind
We'll always know they'll always be,
Our friends from the class of '83.

Good Luck to all our classmates,
Lisa Vendetti and Mary Roy

SOUTH WINDSOR

In 1845 the Town of South Windsor was incorporated, having separated from East Windsor which had been divided from Windsor in 1768.

This was once the territory of the Podunk Indians. Land was purchased from them in 1636 by the settlers from Dorchester, Massachusetts.

John Bissell's Ferry, first across the Connecticut River, was in continuous operation from 1641 until 1917.

The Reverend Timothy Edwards was pastor of the first church in the parish from 1694 to 1758. His son, Jonathan Edwards, born here, was the famous theologian and philosopher.

"May the wind be always at your back."
